A good elder of a chapel, who was given to extravagant exaggeration, was at last called to account for his offense in that respect, and admonished not to give way to the besetting sin in future. The good old man received the admonition meekly, and earnestly said, "I know how prone I am to this fault, my brethren, and it has given me tortures of pain, and night after night I have shed barrels of tears over it." The meeting adjourned in silence.

It is easier to remember the good things eaten than the good things said at a banquet, and that is why the average reporter generally gets back from public dinners with confused recollection and a printed bill of fare, both of which he submits as a report. The bill of fare especially makes very interesting reading matter for cooks in the different restaurants.

Of our gold and silver most of us are careful, but of time which, once lost, can never be recalled or regained, we lavish a large portion, even while we are uttering complaints of the quantity allotted to us.

A devout negro woman prayed in a Milwaukee meeting that she might escape the fires of future punishment; and in the midst of her petition she looked against a red hot stove, and was burned.

The man who shows that he is vain of having done as a favor, pays himself and saves as the trouble.

Mr. Beecher thinks that even impetuous men whose powers are waning from old age may take a little something stronger than tea or coffee to repair the waste of vitality. His favorite tippie is cherry and egg.

"You're a cardinal-sinner!" is the latest witticism.

Funny Men.

The man who professes to be amusing is usually such a bore that we overlook his wit when he has any. Small jesters, like great talkers, are more a plague than a pleasure. They worry us when we want rest, and are so afraid of our missing their point that they extinguish any possible amusement by over-stating, if not by explaining it. For company, the spry man is better than the witty man, and the spry woman better than either; but who ever heard of a funny woman? Yet, on the average, women greatly exceed men both in loquacity and in wit. A good joker should have a short memory, both lest he should remember and repeat the jokes of others, and lest he should be troubled by remembering them when he repeats his own. If he is constantly to think whether he said this or that in the same company before, he will lose all his freshness which is an important element in his success. It is no doubt, a mistake occasionally to repeat, but when it is done unconsciously it is of very little consequence, so long as the repetition is merely verbal. The best fun does not bear repetition or description, but vanishes when written down. All Sydney Smith's recorded jokes would not account for the great reputation he has as a wit; but it was well said of him, as of many another funny man of slighter pretensions, that after you have been in his company you remember not so much the witty things he said as the amount of laughing you yourself have undergone. It is here that the distinction comes which must be drawn between good things and fun. A good thing is by no means always funny; when it is funny it is often ill-natured towards somebody present and to have a laugh at it may disturb enjoyment in its favor. The alderman complained to Coleridge that in consequence of the poet's joking he had swallowed a magnificent piece of fat without tasting it. We confess the deepest sympathy with that alderman. Could we but learn his name, it would be enshrined in the tablets of our memory. He was not stupid; he could see a point—only too well, indeed, for his own comfort. He had come to eat, not to laugh, and he wished to be allowed to choose his own time for either pursuit.

To be funny without ill-nature is not a common gift. It is but too easy to see and remark the weakness of other people. Many funny men have no friends because every one is afraid of them. It is their misfortune to say biting things, to wound the susceptibilities of unoffending neighbors and to give nicknames which stick. To be able to suppress a joke, is in some cases, much better than to be able to make one. If a man is able to hold his tongue rather than to wound, the chances are he can command his wit and be as funny as he pleases when occasion demands. Such a person is invaluable at a dull party or when others are melancholy or tired. He is able to relieve anxiety, to comfort sorrow, to brighten the wettest of days and be cheerful under the most cheerless circumstances. If he knew how to temper his wit, he may be a beneficent visitor everywhere. He must have sympathy for the sorrowful, and be able to enter into the views of the people who differ widely from himself, not only in opinion and natural gifts, but in attainments and in experience. He will often find comedy and tragedy as closely allied as they are in Shakespeare, who well knew, as indeed every true artist must know, how inseparable they are.—London Saturday Review.

Lord Seaforth, who was born deaf and dumb, was to dine one day with Lord Melville. Just before the time of the company's arrival, Lady Melville sent into the drawing-room a lady of her acquaintance who could talk with her fingers to dumb people that she might receive Lord Seaforth. Presently Lord Guildford entered the room, and the lady, taking him for Lord Seaforth, began to ply her fingers very nimbly; Lord Guildford did the same, and they had been carrying on a conversation in this manner for about ten minutes, when Lady Melville joined them. Her female friend immediately said, "Well, I have been talking away to this dumb man 'Dumb!' cried Lord Guildford; 'bless me, I thought you were dumb!'"

The Duty of a Mother.—She should be firm, gentle, kind, and ready to attend to her child. She should never laugh at him, at what he does that is cunning; never allow him to think of his looks; except to be neat and clean in all his habits. She should teach him to obey a look; to respect those older than himself; she should never make a command without seeing it is performed in the right manner. Never speak of a child's faults or follies, or repeat his remarks before him. It is a sure way to spoil a child. Never reprove a child when excited, nor let your tone of voice be raised when correcting. Strive to inspire love, not dread; respect, not fear. Remember you are training and educating a soul for eternity.

THE CHRONICLE.

BODIE, MARCH 27, 1890.

SAN FRANCISCO AGENCY.—H. P. Fisher, H. Mcintosh, Exchange, is our Agent, and is authorized to contract for advertising, receive subscriptions and make collections on our account.

Clean Up.

We do not believe there is a town of the size of Bodie in the State, or on the coast, that has a main street in as horrible a condition as our Main street is, more particularly on the west side of the street, along which the water pipes were laid. The earth taken from the water pipe ditch has been allowed to remain unexcavated along the entire length of the street from above Miners Union Hall to near the Bulwer Mill. It is really impossible for a wheeled conveyance to get up to the side walk, and for nearly the whole distance it is a mass of filth and mud holes. Now this can be easily and quickly remedied if the property owners and the keepers on that side of the street, will but make a move and have that portion in front of their own doors leveled off, and the holes—how so dangerous to man and beast—filled in. The frost is getting out of the ground, and the earth can be easily manipulated. If our people will but exhibit a commendable pride in this matter, before another Sabbath comes around Main street can be made to present a respectable appearance to the eyes of the strangers now coming in daily; and after being once put in a good condition it can be kept so with but little trouble. With our water supply there can be no excuse for dusty streets, as the sprinkling cart can be kept supplied with the needed water, the want of which made Main street very disagreeable last summer. Let us see who will be the first to move in this matter, of making Main street a respectable looking thoroughfare.

Where Is It?—The San Francisco Bulletin, in referring to the business of the San Francisco Mint, for the past ten years says:

It would be of interest to know what has become of the $210,000,000 in gold and silver coined at the Mint in this city during the past ten years. We know of no way of getting at the actual facts in the case. From sources of information at our disposal we can trace a considerable proportion of this sum. For example, we know that $139,304,700 in gold has been exported through the Custom House, and through the Express Company during the past ten years. We know that $28,000,000 more has gone through the mails. The Custom House in the payment of duties. This accounts for $240,324,700 of the $247,324,700 in gold coined here during the past ten years. Of the $67,158,275 in silver coined during the same period, we know that $49,227,000 has been exported out of the State. But after deducting these amounts we still have $16,927,275 in gold, and $14,931,300 in silver as the surplus for the coinage for the past ten years. At the same time it is doubtful whether there is over $25,000,000 in coin in the State outside of what the Government holds.

Superintendent Terrington, of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad, has issued an order that all engineers running on that railroad should withdraw from the Mechanics Union at once, or they will be discharged. He says: "Our engineers belong to the national society known as the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and we pay them higher wages than the Mechanics Union calls for; therefore, we claim that there is no reason for trying to force them into this local society. I am satisfied that all sensible men in the community will sustain the company in its course. If we were trying to cut down wages of the engineers, it would be a different thing altogether; but we are not."

Courtroom.—The following is the text of a bill introduced by Maybell: "All county and city and county officers, except Superintendent of Public Instruction, must be elected at a general election, held in November, 1890, and every two years thereafter, and hold office for two years from the first Monday next, after their election."

No Compromise.—The Alta says that the Citizens Protective Union of San Francisco will make no compromise with the Kearneyites that they will protect the interests of the city and the lives and property of the people at all hazards. That is the right track to roll on. There should be no compromise with such men.

A Struggle.—The action of the San Francisco Bulletin, in dealing with the Typographical Union, fell like a thunder-bolt among the members. Out of forty-five, the backbone of forty were broken. When the roll is called, two weeks hence, not one of the forty-five will belong to the Union. Bread and butter, you know, my boy!

Captain Francis Connor, of the Oregon, died suddenly at Portland, Or., on Tuesday last. He came to this coast in 1850, and for the twenty years has been a commander of the San Francisco and Portland line of Steamers.

CONGRESSIONARY.—Mrs. Swan has opened a comfortable store in Albin's building, on Main street, between Standard Avenue and Mill street. She intends to keep a fresh supply at all times and at reasonable prices.

The Napa County Supervisors have purchased a thorough road scraper, costing $300, for the factory at San Jose. It is drawn by 20 mules and will scrape a mile of road in a day.

Telegraphic.

COAST.

Assessment.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Assessment on Bullion one dollar a share.

Chinatown.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Thirty days notice of condemnation of Chinatown expired to-day, but the Board of Health has, as yet, taken no action with regard to it so far as learned. The Board has no further power than to cause the enforcement of existing laws regarding nuisances, and overcrowded rooms. The laws and ordinances relating to former bear more heavily upon property owners than on occupants, and were they enforced strictly, the white owners of Chinatown would suffer more than the Mongolian tenants of condemned buildings. It is hardly possible, it is stated, to make many arrests on account of violations of law, as there is no place in which prisoners can be kept. Jails are full to overflowing. This fact has been brought to the notice of the Board of Supervisors and Board of Police Commissioners, but no action has been taken toward providing quarters for detention of prisoners, who could be arrested for violating the cubic-air ordinances.

Sand Lot.—SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—Evening papers will publish the following card: "To the Public. We desire to state that no negotiations are going on, and no communications whatever between this Committee and representatives of Sand-lot, all rumors and statements to the contrary notwithstanding. By order of Executive Committee of Citizens' Protective Union, Jennings A. Cox, Secretary, San Francisco, March 25, 1890."

It will be noted that the card is couched in present tense and is unquestionably a strictly correct statement.

Headache.—MENDOCINO, March 25.—Richard McPherson was shot yesterday afternoon about 3 miles south of Noy's Mill by Young Mortier, and died in the evening.

The Skagit Miner.—VICTORIA, B. C., March 25.—A miner has arrived from the Skagit mines in 7 days from Ruby Creek. He and his party took in three months provisions on sleighs and cached them on Ruby Creek. He says the season is backward, and advises no one to go in for a month to come. Latest advice from Nicola, states that the weather is still as hard as deep snows and intense frost can make; between the 1st and 14th instant snow fell to the depth of one foot; the prevailing winds are from the north, and the mercury frequently goes down to fifteen and twenty degrees below zero, and at Douglas and Minnie Lakes it fell to twenty-six below.

EASTERN.—Sitting Bull.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Secretary Ramsey says that the Government can only receive Sitting Bull's people as prisoners of war to be held until the Government provides for their maintenance. General Sherman regards them as British subjects.

The Treasury to-day brought 445,000 ounces of silver for San Francisco and New Orleans.

Secretary Sherman to-day ordered Commander Potter, on the U. S. Ship Constellation, to deliver her cargo to the Herald Relief Committee in Dublin, and explain it was donated by a generous-hearted American, and of sympathy for the suffering Irish. He expresses satisfaction at the peaceful character of the mission.

Paymaster Spaulding.—WASHINGTON, March 25.—Judge J. D. Latham is here to try to get Paymaster Spaulding restored to the service. He was suspended on account of his being connected with the transactions of his clerk, Geo. M. Pinney, by signing bank vouchers, etc., Pinney having been acquitted by a civil court and Spaulding having done no more than other paymasters had done previously. It is claimed that he should be relieved from suspicion. It is also asserted that if the law had allowed him to testify in his own behalf upon his trial, as the subsequently enacted statute now permits in similar cases, the result would have been different.

For Sherman.—GOLDEN, N. C., March 25.—Two delegates, elected to the Chicago Convention from this place, are strong for John Sherman. The Grant men are astonished, as the colored vote was counted as solid for Grant.

Child Murder.—Des Moines, Iowa, March 25.—A girl 17 years of age, named Mary Henderson, who was formerly a dining-room girl at the Tabor House in this city, gave birth last week in Hartford, Warner county, to an illegitimate child, which the mother of the girl cut to pieces and burned in the stove, the cinders being thrown into a privy vault. Four months ago the girl left this city and has been secretly confined in a room at her home in Hartford during the whole period. Previous to the death, that occurred a few days ago, she confessed all the particulars. Her mother and sister Jennie, are under arrest. The father of the child was Wm. Ray, a miller of Hartford, now in Nebraska.

Chinese Treaty.—WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Senators and Representatives from California are not at all pleased with the selection of the commission to negotiate a new immigration treaty with China. They claim that they have been badly treated, because it is a subject that their constituents are interested in almost exclusively, and they have been given but one member of the Board, while two have been selected who know nothing of the situation or needs of California. They assert that no man can understand the Chinese question unless he has come in contact with that race, and that learning by experience is vastly different from learning from theory. It is a beautiful theory that everybody is welcome to come to our hospitable shores, remarked one to-day, but it is dreadfully disagreeable one for California, when applied to the Chinese. It is believed that Angell and Trevellick have their minds made up, and the result of the commission will therefore not change the present situation.

President Angell has accepted the Chinese Mission and it is understood here that he will be granted leave of two years absence from his duties as President of Michigan University. The nomination of the new Minister to China and those of Commissioners Swift and Trevellick, were taken up in to-day's executive session of the Senate, and referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations, which will meet next Tuesday. It is understood that the Commission are not to enter on their mission until Congress shall first have made an appropriation to defray expenses. This is believed will be readily granted. There seems to be little or no doubt of their confirmation, and that of Mr. Angell, as Minister, is conceded on all hands.

Grant to Withdraw.

CHICAGO, March 25.—The Times Washington says the third-termers here have been interviewed on the report that they are weakening on Grant, but not the remotest hint of a change of front has been given by Don Cameron.

Boston, March 25.—The Advertiser received a dispatch last night from Washington stating that positive information has been received that Grant will withdraw as a candidate before the Chicago Convention meets.

Hang'd.

St. Charles, Mo., March 25.—Wm. Barton, a 16-year-old negro, was hanged this morning for the murder of James Clatterback, on February last. Upward of 2000 persons were present. He confessed the crime.

A Cyclone.

WINFIELD, KS., March 25.—A barn and a small building were carried away this morning by a cyclone and neither has been found, not even a fragment, after ten hours search.

An Editor Shot.

TORONTO, March 25.—A man named Bennett, formerly employed in the Globe newspaper office, but who was discharged for misconduct, to-day entered the room of Hon. George Brown, at the office, and made a deliberate attempt to assassinate him. Without a word of warning he aimed a pistol at the head of Brown, who was sitting at his desk. On hearing the intruder, Brown arose, and as he did so, received the bullet in his thigh. He at once grasped the intended murderer, wrestled the pistol from him and threw him down. The employees of the establishment, hearing the shot, rushed to Brown's assistance and held Bennett until policemen arrived and took him to the station house. Brown is editor, and one of the proprietors, of the Globe, a leader of the reform party, and a Senator of the Dominion.

Russia and China.

LONDON, March 25.—The Augsburg Gazette says that the pending trouble between Russia and China is entirely due to English influence at Peking. The Nord of Brussels refuses to believe this until it is confirmed, but maintains that if China should enter into hostile league against Russia, she will receive a lesson that will cost her Kuldja, and England will have the new champion of seeing Russia, strengthened in her hold on the frontier of China.

Coloone.

Coloone, March 25.—A musician, who, in July last, for speaking ill of Emperor William, was condemned to eighteen months imprisonment, has been liberated, after serving six months of his sentence, owing to the discovery that the two female witnesses on whose testimony he was condemned committed perjury.
